2. Board must approve the selling of all raffle tickets including 4-H.
3. Any political or controversial organization cannot sell raffle tickets.

Becker County Youth Market Auction

The Becker County Youth Market Auction is a function of the Becker County Fairboard. Below is an opportunity for 4-H and FFA members.

Becker County Youth Market Livestock Auction Bylaws:

1. To be eligible to sell in the Becker County Youth Market Livestock Auction all market beef and dairy steers, market sheep and market swine must win a red or blue ribbon and must be the recommended Becker County Livestock Committee market weight. Market poultry, market rabbits and market goats are blue ribbon winners only.
2. Becker County youth can enter only one eligible 4-H or FFA animal in the auction. Members that have more than one market animal must report to the Youth Market Livestock Auction Committee at the table set up in the barn by 3:00 p.m. on Thursday. Market species are beef, swine, sheep, goats, market pens poultry, market pens rabbits, and dairy steers. Preferably, if you know what animals you are going to take into the auction let the committee know as soon as possible. Exhibitors in violation of this rule will not be in the Market Auction.
3. Exhibitors and animals going into the auction ring are to be prepared as for their regular show. If not fit for a regular show, the animals will not sell in the auction. Displaying the show ribbon is acceptable. (This would allow market animals to be shown in lamb lead wool garments, but this would be the only exception to the policy.)
4. The 4-H/FFA member must be on hand to bring their animal into ring. No sibling or other 4-H/FFA member can bring in the animal. They must also be present at the end of the auction to have pictures taken with the successful bidder, if requested. If the exhibitor is not available for pictures, he-she will forfeit 50% of their market auction premium to the auction committee. If you need an exception, it must be brought to the Becker County Youth Market Livestock Auction Committee 24 hours before the auction.

5. A commission on premium will be taken from each exhibitor's check for promotion, advertising, and the bidders breakfast expense and to comply with youth livestock education in Becker County.
6. Animals must be at the following weights to be eligible, at the Becker County Fair, to enter the Youth Market Livestock Auction. Market Goats- 40 lbs; Sheep-90 lbs; mini lambs-50 lbs Swine-190. lbs; all Market Beef- 1000 lbs; Lowline or Mini Breeds-550 lbs.
7. FFA members must be an active member of a Becker County FFA Chapter while in high school or must be an active member of a collegiate program. Any FFA member who has retained a membership is eligible to exhibit in up to four county fairs after high school graduation, and also must be a current resident of Becker County. Any exceptions can be brought to the auction committee at least 48 hours before the auction.
8. Youth cannot have sold an animal in another FFA/4-H auction in the same calendar year.
9. Any market animal eligible to be purchased by bidder will be announced from the block or noted in the auction program.
